The Japanese American Incarceration: Constitutional Vigilance in a Time of Crisis

A Teacher Training Workshop

Several times in our nation's history, political leaders have been faced with balancing constitutional rights with issues of national security. These decisions were colored by many factors, including wartime hysteria, misinformation, sensationalized media, and racism. The workshop session will cover the historical background of the Japanese American incarceration during World War II, connections to current events and other communities, and the ongoing lessons of discrimination, civil liberties, and justice.

This workshop is sponsored by the Japanese American Citizens League (JACL) through a grant from the U.S. Department of the Interior, National Park Service, Japanese American Confinement Sites grant program. The JACL is a national Asian American civil rights organization whose ongoing mission is to secure and maintain the civil rights of Japanese Americans and all others who are victimized by injustice and bigotry.
